

My beloved

My beloved, my beloved
There's nothing like you
Believe me, believe me
My words are so true
Your souls are of colours
The world never knew
My beloved, my beloved
There's nothing like you

In your smile lies the beauty
Of heaven above
In your eyes shines the light
Of unconditional love
When you look inside
You'll see and you'll know the divine is within you Wherever you go

1 Ton höher

Live your life in the world
With your arms opened wide
Share your wisdom and joy
Let your soul be your guide
Know that you're here to be what you are
my beloved, my beloved
follow your heart
