

Only ONE

Still lies the lake
At the foot of the mountain
The evening breeze touches the trees
Golden light is mirrored by the sky
Is mirrored by your soul

Your sitting there on the edge of the water
Listening to the sound of light
The blue hour takes your
On tender wings into the night
Into the night

And suddenly your heart and mind are opened up
And all illusion is undone – it's seen there's only one
And love surrounds you with its grace
No time no space
No time no space

Still lies the lake
At the foot of the mountain
The nocturnal breeze is rustling in the leaves
Silver light is mirrored by the sky
Is mirrored by your soul
Is mirrored by your soul
Is mirrored by your soul
